INVOCATION

The Rev. Dr. George Turpin, Civic Chaplain, delivered the Invocation, as follows:

"Eternal God and Father of all mankind we give thanks at this Inauguration for all the blessings and challenges which are ours at this time.

We pray for the Mayor and Aldermen of this City.

Inspire them with the ancient word: - "Be Strong and of Good Courage: Be Not Afraid, Neither Be Thou Dismayed."

Help them, O God, to conduct the business of Council wisely and to continue to give dedicated leadership to this City. Bless their homes. Give special grace to their families who share the honour and joys and also the frustrations and anxieties of Civic Office.

We pray for those who serve this City on Boards and Committees, and all who are part of the Civic organization in its many departments. Give to them pride in their positions and love for their tasks of service.

We pray for the Press Gallery and its members and the important news media they represent. May those who film, write and talk be truly inspired and continue to be successful in finding something good to film, write and talk about -- Always!

We pray, O God, for our City and all who live here. Keep, O God, the pressure of Thy way of justice and brotherhood upon us, so that this City will become a real community of shared prosperity, good homes, happy schools, law abiding progressive people, productive industry, business trade and commerce, and alert agencies of spiritual, moral, mental and physical well-being - in order that the motto of Vancouver will come true for everyone: - BY SEA AND LAND AND AIR WE PROSPER."

AMEN
